

"And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?""

Luke 10 : 25

"He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?" And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

Luke 10 : 26 - 27

"And he said to him, "You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.""

Luke 10 : 28

"But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus..."

Luke 10 : 29

“But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus,
“And who is my neighbor?””

Luke 10 : 29

"Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead.""

Luke 10 : 30

Jericho Road

“Now by chance a priest was going down that road...”

Luke 10 : 31

"Now by chance a priest was going down that road and when he saw him he passed by on the other side"

Luke 10 : 31

"So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side."

Luke 10 : 37

"He said, "The one who showed him mercy."
And Jesus said to him, "You go, and do likewise.""

Luke 10 : 37

"Sometimes we are fractured by the choices we make; sometimes we are shattered by the things we would never would have chosen. But our brokenness is also the source of our common humanity, the basis of our shared search for comfort, meaning and healing. Our shared vulnerability and imperfection nurtures and sustains our capacity for compassion."
